

Glory in His holy name; Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek the Lord!

-- Psalm 105:3

777: An Urgent Call to Prayer

Tens of thousands joined Anne for 7 days during the 7th month to worship, repent, and intercede for our nation with one spirit and one voice. The following testimony captures one way God used this time not only nationally, but personally...

* I just happened to find the 777 Prayer invitation. I was amazed at the words of the prayers. Because I am retired, I have hours each day to read and pray. I want you to know how your prayers have impacted my life. I also use them at the prison. I feel like I need a new name because I feel like a new person! (T.)

911: An Urgent Call to Pray for Jerusalem

On September 1, 2014, Anne invited everyone to pray and fast one hour for the peace of Jerusalem. The following testimony speaks for the thousands who participated...

* Anne, thank you so much for your 9 1 1 prayer for Israel. I forwarded this to many of my friends and pray that they joined you in this wonderful prayer. As I sat on my deck Monday, praying with the many people all over the world, I was moved to tears. The depth of this prayer was like no prayer for Israel that I have ever prayed. I felt the power of the Holy Spirit as I cried out to Him for His Land and His Chosen People. We are here, in the end of days, for a time such as this. As Christians who believe in what the Bible says, we see prophecy being fulfilled daily. Thank you for the 9 1 1 prayer that we can use as a guide... (L.)

“Because You have been my help, therefore in the shadow of Your wings I will rejoice.” --Psalm 63:7

This past year has been characterized by hardships. It began with Danny, my husband, coming home after two months in the hospital and rehab due to back-to-back pneumonias and all the complications associated with them. While it was wonderful to have him home, my caregiving took on a new dimension which seems to increase on a daily basis. Danny has had three hospitalizations since then. On one occasion, the medical staff did not think he would pull through and talked to me about end of life procedures. But three days later, he walked out of the hospital! Since then, he has dealt with a broken kneecap, broken ribs, and a troublesome dialysis fistula.

But overshadowing all of these difficulties has been the Lord's help. It has been demonstrated over and over again through wisdom to make right decisions, through eyes to see the next assignment, through strength to complete each and every task, through grace to handle emergencies with poise and peace, through staff and ministry partners who have supported and encouraged me, through moments of joy sprinkled throughout the days that sparkle like diamonds against the black velvet of hardship...the list goes on and on.

The Lord's help has once again been on display the very week that I am writing this newsletter. Three mornings a week, Danny goes to dialysis because of end-stage renal failure. On Thursday morning, Danny was sent home after only 90 minutes in dialysis instead of his full 5 hours. I was told that his fistula, which had just been worked on at an access center the week before, was not functioning. In talking to the nurse, I was told that the dialysis center would try once again on Friday morning, but that if his port still didn't function properly, he would be sent to the surgeon who would insert a catheter in his chest while they tried to come up with a solution to the problem.

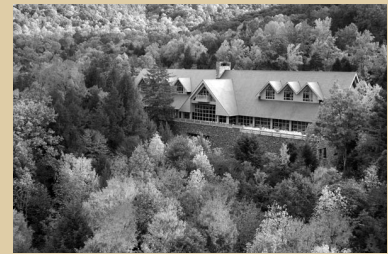

Friday morning, I drove Danny to the dialysis center, walked in with him, spoke to the in-charge nurse, and told her I wanted to speak with the technician who would be accessing the fistula for dialysis. When she asked why, I told her I wanted to pray with him. She laughed in my face. While I don't know what she was thinking, her whole expression was, "This is a joke. Very funny." I ignored her reaction, looked her squarely in

On July 8th, the day after our 777: An Urgent Call to Prayer for our nation, this double rainbow appeared over the capitol in Washington, DC. It seemed to be God's visible response to our prayers, assuring us He had heard our cries and Heaven was moved.

Joel Rosenberg, Anne's good friend and NY Times best-selling author (pictured in white shirt on front row), joined the Solidarity with Israel delegation in Jerusalem on their last day. Joel and his family had taken up residency and citizenship in Israel the very week Anne and the group were there. Joel will also be partnering with Anne for her first prophecy seminar at The Cove in March.

BLOWING THE TRUMPET:

A Prophecy Seminar at The Cove with Joel Rosenberg

MARCH 13-15, 2015

Through environmental, social, financial, national, religious and agricultural disasters, God is sounding the alarm today as He has in the past. The time to wake up and to cry out to God in repentance and humility is now. As the signs of the end of the age and of His return increase in frequency and intensity, there is still time to embrace the hope that God promises, and offer it to someone else. If you are in ministry, then join Anne and Joel Rosenberg for this prophecy seminar that aims to raise up a generation that understands the times. Inspiring worship will be led by Selah.

the eye, and told her that my husband was struggling with a broken kneecap, broken ribs, and now this. We had had enough. We did not want to deal with a non-functional fistula or surgery, and it was time to pray. As she waved the technician over, she was still laughing, and in a mocking tone said, "She wants to pray for you." The technician responded, "I would like that." And he bowed his head. With Danny and the laughing lady standing with the respectful technician, I prayed! And God answered! The fistula worked, and is still working as I write this. Because God is an ever-present Help in our troubles.

Our experience reminded me of a story in the New Testament. (Luke 8:40-56) Jairus, the ruler of the synagogue, had come to Jesus, fallen at His feet, and pleaded for His help to save his twelve-year-old daughter who was dying. But before Jesus arrived at the home, the daughter died. When Jesus entered the home, He instructed the people who had gathered to, "Stop wailing...she is not dead but asleep." They laughed at Him! But Jesus ignored their evaluation of her condition, took the little girl by the hand, and raised her up. The laughter immediately turned into astonishment!

As we enter into this Thanksgiving and Christmas season, I am rejoicing in our ever-present Helper who can raise our children from the dead, who can give a dialysis technician skill to access successfully a damaged fistula, who can give a brave husband strength to endure, and who turns mocking laughter into astonishment! And in the process gives a worn-out caregiver comfort, encouragement, and hope!

Anne Graham Lotz

Anne and her daughter, Morrow, planted a small oak tree as a symbol of hope for the nation of Israel. The two prayed as they planted that God would protect His people and His land, growing up the faith of many Jews who would come to recognize and receive Jesus...Yeshua... as their Messiah, Savior, and Lord.

Bible Study: Rejoice

I rejoice at Your word as one who finds great treasure. -- Psalm 119:162

Read Romans 5:1-11

I. REJOICE IN HOPE

Romans 5:1-2

- *Describe our spiritual condition before placing our faith in Jesus Christ as our Savior and Lord. Give phrases from: Romans 1:18, 2:5-6, 12; 3:10-12, 23; Ephesians 2:1-3, 12.
- *What difference does faith in Jesus make to our spiritual condition? Give phrases from: John 3:16-18; Romans 3:22; Ephesians 2:4-11, 18-22; 1 Corinthians 6:9-11.
- *What is one of the major differences that being reconciled to God—being right with Him—makes on the inside of us? Romans 5:1, 15:13; Philippians 4:6-7; Colossians 3:15; 1 Thessalonians 5:23; Hebrews 13:20
- *Into what are saved sinners given access? Romans 5:2; Ephesians 1:3-8; 2:18; Hebrews 10:19-23
- *What is the key mentioned twice in Romans 5:1-2 that unlocks access into God's presence and His blessings? When did you personally grasp the key and use it yourself?
- *Keeping in mind that Biblical hope is not a wish or desire or a "hope-so," but it is a confidence that we possess what God has promised, summarize how the above verses give you cause to rejoice.

II. REJOICE IN HARDSHIPS

Romans 5:3-8

- *What hardships are you currently enduring? Make a list.
- *What could be God's purpose for allowing these hardships into your life? Romans 5:3-4; 1 Peter 1:6-7; James 1:2-4
- *Explain how the story of Lazarus in John 11:1-44 illustrates God's purpose in allowing His children to endure hardships.
- *Are hardships in your life evidence that God does not really love you, or at least that He doesn't love you as much as those who don't have hardships? Romans 5:5-8; John 11:3; Hebrews 10:38-39; 12:5-11
- *What command did God give to us through the apostle Paul in Philippians 4:4?
- *What hardship was Paul enduring when he wrote those words? Philippians 1:12-14
- *How did Paul himself set the example for us of rejoicing in hardships? 2 Corinthians 12:7-10
- *How did Jesus set the example for us? Hebrews 12:1-3
- *While enduring hardships, what example are you setting for others?

Over a year ago, we made the strategic decision to change our website from functioning primarily as an electronic brochure or catalog, to one that functions primarily as a ministry. The changes in the appearance of this newsletter reflect the look of the new website. Coming soon...

One of this year's ministry highlights for Anne to participate in The Patterns and Promises Prophecy Conference at Maranatha Chapel in San Diego. The conference was attended by thousands, carried on live radio to tens of thousands more, and streamed live throughout CA. It was hosted by the pastor, Ray Bentley. On Saturday the speakers participated in a panel discussion, answering questions from the audience. Seated left to right: Pastor Ray Bentley, Anne, Pastor Mike MacIntosh, and Tom Doyle. Not pictured is Dr. David Jeremiah.

III. REJOICE IN HIM

Romans 5:9-11

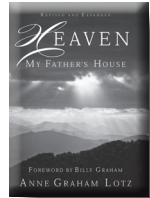

- *If our spirits are heavy, what are we encouraged to do? Isaiah 61:3
- *Describe the way praise was used, and the difference it made when God's children were facing problems, pressure, and the enemy in 2 Chronicles 20:1-29.
- *How can you use praise in the same way? Try it.
- *What, or who, is the subject of our joy in Romans 5:11?
- *What are the specific reasons given that we are to rejoice in Him? Romans 5:9-10
- *Why would we rejoice in the blood of Jesus when it speaks of His death? Give reasons from: Hebrews 9:22; Romans 5:9-11; John 6:53-54; Ephesians 2:13; 1 John 1:7; Revelation 1:5-6.
- *What does "justified" mean? Give a dictionary definition, and apply it to the position before God that you are given by the blood of Jesus.
- *How does this set you free to rejoice? Romans 8:1-4, 32
- *Describe how this joy reverberates in Heaven. Revelation 5:9-14; 12:10-12
- *Write out several prayers of praise that express sheer joy: in who Jesus is; in what He has done for you through His death; in what He has done for you through His resurrection; in what He will do for you at His return.

In these days of confusion and desperation we can become so burdened by international, national, and personal problems that we become gloomy. Depressed. Oppressed. What can we do? We can rejoice!

Rejoicing changes our perspective from one of doom to delight. From gloom to glory. So join me as together we put on the "garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness." (Isaiah 61:3) Rejoice! (Philippians 4:4)

Praise and Prayer

PRAISE

“Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory...”
-- Revelation 19:7

- *For God’s faithfulness to give Anne a very timely message as the Honorary Chair for the official observance of the National Day of Prayer.
- *For the tens of thousands of people who signed up on our website to receive daily prayers during our 7 7 7: An Urgent Call to Prayer, and those who participated in our 9 1 1: An Urgent Call to Pray for Jerusalem.
- *For the rainbows after both initiatives confirming God had heard our prayers and would answer.
- *For God’s wisdom to communicate via video blogs what Anne would say to those who would be left behind, if Jesus were to come for His people today.
- *For an increased online presence that drew in over one million people to view one of our Facebook postings.
- *For the opportunity God gave Anne to take a quick trip to Israel, which enabled her to rally God’s people to pray, as well as to record two video messages in the Old City of Jerusalem.

PRAYER

“...We have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.”
-- Romans 5:2

For His glory, we are asking...

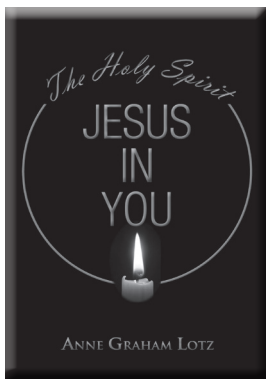

- *For God to continue opening doors of ministry opportunity for Anne while she cares for Danny.
- *For God’s wisdom, insight, and words as Anne begins writing a new book in January.

Radio, writing, and social media are increasingly playing a primary role as the channel for Anne’s ministry. While we have had a radio studio in our office, we have invested in a new in-house video studio that includes cameras, microphones, lighting, and a green screen so we can digitally modify the background.

- *For God’s wisdom and creativity to communicate His truth through video blogs, Facebook posts, and writing in such a way that people are drawn into His Word.
- *For a smooth launch of our new website before the new year.
- *For the Wind of the Spirit to blow through all that we do at AnGeL Ministries, so that God continues to use us for His glory.
- *For financial resources to be adequate to pay our ministry bills.
- *For God’s protection and provision during these unsettled times; for His boldness to seize opportunities to give people Jesus; for His power to change lives.

Christmas Gift Ideas...Two New DVDs from Anne

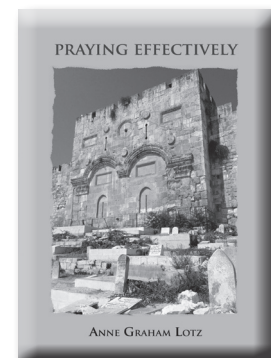

Sometimes life can be overwhelming. Problems. Pressures. Pain. All of these or any one of these, when added to daily responsibilities, can make us feel that life is just too much. When the disciples felt overwhelmed, Jesus told them He would ask the Father, who would send them a Helper, the Holy Spirit. Then Jesus added that they would be better off with the Holy Spirit than with Himself. How could that be? Who is the mysterious third person of the Trinity? To find out, join Anne on the Southern Steps of the Old City of Jerusalem, the most likely place where the Holy Spirit was given at Pentecost and the church was born. Her message is based on the comfort and challenge of Jesus’ description of the Holy Spirit in John 16:5-16.

#345DVD The Holy Spirit: Jesus in You - $10.00

While you know you should pray more, and you want to pray more, have your unanswered prayers discouraged you into thinking prayer doesn’t work for you? Do you long to know how to pray with more success? Then join Anne on a balcony overlooking the Old City of Jerusalem, as she gives insight into Daniel’s prayer that moved Heaven and changed a nation. Based on Daniel 9, she shares a pattern for Praying Effectively.
