Fall 2012

“And I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne...saying with a loud voice, ‘Worthy is the Lamb’...”

-- Revelation 5:11-12

During this wonderful Thanksgiving and Christmas season, do you ever get down? Do you ever feel overwhelmed by life? A feeling that seems to be in stark contrast with the music, the festivities, the decorations, and all that goes with the Holidays? I wonder if pressure, stress, job assignments, battles, and the 24/7 service that angels render to their King, ever tempt them to stutter in their praise and worship of Him? Even as I ask that question, I immediately know the answer. No! They are never interrupted in their worship. (Revelation 4:8) And that continuous praise must be intentional, because they do a lot of work. (Psalm 103:20-21)

One key to living a life of uninterrupted worship is that our focus is not on ourselves or someone else or anything else...our focus is on Jesus, and who He is.

As I look back over 2012, this AnGeL wants to be uninterrupted in praise, proclaiming that all the physical and emotional ups and downs...the travel that included Canada and California, India and Indiana...the writing that included blogs and newsletters and a new devotional book and the rough draft of a new trade book...the thousands of emails and phone calls ...the packing and unpacking...the illnesses and pressures and stress...the demands of family and ministry...ALL have been worthwhile because Jesus is worth it! He is worthy of all praise!

The exaltation of the utter, absolute worthiness of Jesus Christ is one of the most serious casualties of 9/11. In our desire to be united as a nation against the terrorists, we have compromised the name of Jesus. Or at least, we've compromised our naming of His name. Yet Isaiah 59:19 (NKJV) promises, “So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and His glory from the rising of the sun [east]; when the enemy comes in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD will lift up a standard against him.” The standard or the banner that is to be lifted up against the enemy is nothing more...and nothing less...than the name of Jesus. One vital key to victory over the enemy is praise of Jesus! Is it no wonder, then, that the enemy wants to interrupt us and silence His name?

The Bible clearly states that Jesus Christ is:

- The Creator who left Heaven's throne to become our Savior. Colossians 1:15-17
- The only begotten, virgin-born Son of God—that doesn't mean He is God, Jr. It means He is God in the flesh—fully God and fully man. Matthew 1:18; John 1:14
- The Lamb of God, sacrificed to take away the sin of the world. John 1:29
- The Savior who rose from the dead to give us eternal life and open Heaven for us. Luke 24:1-8; John 3:16

For the first time in 13 years, Just Give Me Jesus was made available to those outside of the arena. Friday evening, the Augusta revival was carried live on over 300 radio stations nationwide. And the entire revival was streamed live on the web. Within 24 hours we were joined by people in all 50 states, and in 70 different countries! It is now offered On Demand at www.annegrahamlotz.com so that anyone can share in this life-changing experience until December 31st.

- The Lord of lords who ascended into Heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father with all authority under His feet. Ephesians 1:19-23
- The King of kings who is coming back to rule and reign on this earth. Acts 1:11; Revelation 1:7, 19:6-8, 11-16

Jesus Christ stands in the unique solitude of Himself. There is no one like Him. I alphabetized a list of His names for easy recall in order to prompt my praise ...

He is the Alpha and the Omega
 He is the Beginning and the End
 He is the Christ
 The Deliverer—Defender of the weak
 The Everlasting Father, Emmanuel
 The Foundation on which we stand
 The Glorious One
 The Hope of the Ages
 The I Am
 The Judge
 The King of kings
 The Lord of lords
 The Messiah
 The Name above all names
 The Overcomer
 The Prince of Peace
 The Question...and the Answer
 The Redeemer
 The Savior
 The Truth
 The Unchanging God
 The Victorious Warrior
 The Wisdom of God, Way to God, Word of God
 XYZ—He is exalted to the highest place!

The weekend before July 4th , I was privileged to speak twice in a large open-air pavilion that has been used for Bible teaching and preaching for over 100 years. The conference in Ocean Grove, New Jersey, is one that my husband attended with his parents when he was a boy.

Make your own list of alphabetized names. Memorize it. Recite it. Say it out loud in your home. Have His name ready on your lips to say to others when the opportunity presents itself. Don't be afraid or ashamed of His name. Don't be silent. Speak up, knowing that "God exalted Him to the highest place and has given Him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Philippians 2:9-11)

This Christmas, for the King's Birthday, exalt and praise the name of Jesus! Join the voices of "many angels, numbering thousands upon thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand. They encircled the throne...In a loud voice they sang: Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!" (Revelation 5:11-12) This AnGeL is praying that your life...and mine, your deeds...and mine, your words... and mine, will exalt the name of Jesus! Why? Because He is worth it!

Merry Christmas!

June Zahau Holtz

Vicky Bentley has been our liaison on the ground in Uganda as we have been preparing for Rooted in MORE of Jesus. Using our children's book, Heaven: God's Promise for Me, she gave this young boy, who is confined to his bed, the hope of Heaven, confirming that one day it will be his home. Praise God! This life is not all there is.

Bible Study: He Is Worth It!

Read Revelation 5

I. BECAUSE HE IS UNEQUALED IN POSITION

Revelation 5:1-5

- What do you think the scroll could represent? See Revelation 5:7, 9; 11:15; 12:10-12; 15:7; 21:5.
- Name people throughout history, until this present day, who would want to rule the world.
- What is the question in Revelation 5:2? What is the difference between wanting something, and being worthy to have it?
- Why did John weep—what was at stake—if no one was found, who was worthy to rule the world from God’s perspective?
- In all of the universe, in every generation, how many people were found to be worthy to take the scroll?
- What is Jesus’ position? Philippians 2:9-11; Ephesians 1:20-23; Colossians 1:17-20; Hebrews 1:3
- What else is Jesus able to do, according to: 2 Timothy 1:12; Ephesians 3:20; 2 Corinthians 9:8; Hebrews 2:18; Jude 24; Philippians 3:21.
- Name some of the “rulers” that people today submit their lives to.
- Evaluate what preoccupies your thoughts, what you spend the most time doing, where you spend the most money, in order to determine who or what holds the position of ruler-ship in your life. Name it.

I am burdened for the next generation...and the one that comes after that! Not only are our children and grandchildren going to be strapped with a huge financial debt, but they seem to be headed for spiritual poverty as well. So I was thrilled to watch and listen as my daughter, Rachel-Ruth, demonstrated to 3000 women in Albuquerque, New Mexico, how they could get children into the Word of God for themselves.

- If Jesus is able to rule the world and fulfill God’s big plan for the human race, why would you doubt He is able to rule the details of your life so that your life works?

II. BECAUSE HE IS UNDISPUTED IN POWER

Revelation 5:6-10

- Who is the Lamb? Isaiah 53:1-12; John 1:29
- Why did He look as though He had been slain? John 20:24-29
- What objections were raised to His taking the scroll? Revelation 5:6-7
- In all of the Universe, why did no one object to Jesus taking the scroll, claiming His right to rule the world? Give phrases from Revelation 4:11 and 5:9.
- Describe the difference between the scene in Revelation 5, and the scene in John 19:1-11.
- In what way did Jesus have the last word? Mark 16:6; Acts 4:8-10, 12; 2 Timothy 2:8-10, Revelation 1:4-8
- If no one in the Universe disputes the authority of Jesus, why would you and I resist it?

III. BECAUSE HE IS UNRIVALED IN PRAISE

Revelation 5:11-14

- What is one purpose of our existence, according to Ephesians 1:4-6?
- Comparing Revelation 4:6-11 with 5:8-13, what lesson do you learn?
- Who is praising God because you are?
- Why are we to praise the Lord? Give some of the reasons from each of the following verses: Genesis 29:35; 2 Samuel 22:47-51; Ezra 3:11; Nehemiah 9:1-5; Job 1:6-22; Psalm 7:17; 96:2; 139:14; Psalm 142:7; Isaiah 25:1; Daniel 4:37; Joel 2:26; Luke 1:68; Romans 15:7-13; 2 Corinthians 9:6-7, 12-13; Hebrews 13:15-16; Psalm 113.
- What is one of the personal benefits of praise to the Lord? Isaiah 61:1-3
- What or who has interrupted your praise?

This Christmas, if your praise has been interrupted for any reason, would you restart it? Praise God for giving us Jesus. Why? Because He is unequalled in His position, undisputed in His power, and unrivalled in His praise. He is worth your praise 24/7!

Fixing My Eyes on Jesus

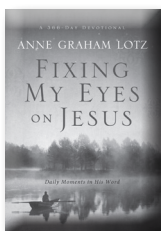

Getting up early in the morning to fix my eyes on Jesus through prayer and reading His Word is like setting my spiritual compass. Because no matter what faces me during the day, or how "lost" and confused I can become, or how many decisions and choices I'm confronted with, my heart and my thoughts always turn toward Him. And He invariably leads me on the right path.

My prayer is that the devotions in this small volume will help you fix your eyes on Jesus every day, so that you, too, can set your spiritual compass.

Fixing My Eyes on Jesus* is now available for pre-ordering for an expected December release. $12

For just $5 more, add a Just Give Me Jesus tote or Bible cover with your Fixing My Eyes on Jesus devotional book to help you stay organized for Bible study, Sunday school, Vacation Bible school, etc.
