A PERSONAL WORD FROM ANNE

My beloved friend, Jill Briscoe, once visited what had been an extremely poverty-stricken country in Africa. As she flew in, she looked down on miles and miles of African veldt that had previously been covered by a lush grasslike crop, but was now an unbroken, brown, dusty plain stretching all the way to the horizon. As Jill traveled to the mission station where she would be staying, mile after mile of barren, dry, poverty-stricken land passed by her window. Little dust devils danced in the hot afternoon sun, while shimmering heat waves made the emaciated, dust-covered people walking listlessly beside the road look more like ghostly apparitions than humans.

The relief workers told her the sad story: The veldt had once been a beautifully green, rolling expanse covered by a newly discovered crop that adapted easily to the climate and soil of the area. Within a few short years, this crop had promised to make the people in the area totally self-sufficient as it became the main, and plentiful, staple of their diet.

Sadly, the relief workers shook their heads as they explained what had happened: The crop had, indeed, become the main staple in the diet of the local people, but too late it had been found to have no nutritional value at all. The tragedy was that hundreds of people had starved to death—with their stomachs full!

Those pitiful African people seem to symbolize many church members in America today who are spiritually starving to death with their stomachs full! We have made the main staples of our “diet” those things that have no real nutritional value—political agendas, social issues, human rights, books about God’s Word, musical videos, theological formulas for reaching the postmodern man, and marketing strategies for the local church, along with a myriad of conferences, seminars, retreats, dramas, and “special events.” None of these things is harmful in itself, but when substituted for the nutrition of daily Bible reading and prayer, the result is increasing spiritual starvation.

I have crisscrossed America, speaking in arenas, to conventions and churches, I have become convinced of one thing: the average church member is desperately hungry for God’s Word. While we read books about it and hear sermons on it and live by principles from it, we are sadly devoid of it on a daily basis. When our lives begin to unravel due to pressure, problems, or pain, we don’t seem to know how to access its power and truth in a personal, relevant way that makes a difference. As a result, thousands have spirits that are shriveling even while they are sobbing, “Please, just give me Jesus!”

What does your spiritual diet consist of? Although you may be an active church member and a committed Christian, could it be that you are actually starving for the Bread of Life? Are you starving for the Bread, which is Jesus Himself, offered to you and me through God’s Word?

If so, then this workbook is for you! It has been designed to take you directly into God’s Word. There is no middleman. There are no blanks to fill in. There is not even any cross-referencing required. The simple format for meditation has been developed from my own daily personal time in God’s Word as a means of reading a passage in order to hear Him speaking to me personally through it. Day after day, as I use this method in my Bible reading, God has fed me and filled me to overflowing!

As you begin this Bible study, pray this simple prayer: “Dear God, please, give me a vision of Your glory!” Then open your Bible and enjoy the Food!

GETTING STARTED

These worksheets are designed to be used as a companion to The Vision of His Glory. Used together, they will provide a format for Bible study that is effective for group discussion (Sunday school classes, women's or men's church groups, home or neighborhood Bible classes, one-on-one discipleship) as well as for your private devotions. Believing that God speaks to us through His Word, we have designed these worksheets to lead you through a series of questions concerning the designated Scripture passage. The exercises enable you to not only discover for yourself the eternal truths revealed by God in the Bible, but also to hear God speaking personally to you through His Word and thus have a fresh encounter with Him.

Getting Started on Your Own

It is suggested that Getting Started, Tips for Success, Take One Step at a Time, and the Sample Chapter be used as an initial lesson in order to familiarize yourself with the format to be used. The worksheets are subsequently divided to correspond with the chapters of the book. If you make your way through this study using one set of worksheets each day, you will complete a chapter a week. The Scripture passage for each worksheet corresponds with the Scripture passage in the divisions of the book chapters. Each set of worksheets will provide a very rich, meaningful pathway for your daily walk with Jesus.

Getting Started in a Group

If you embark on this study in a group, you may want to meet once a week to share the insights you've gained. See the suggestions in the above paragraph. Ideally, your group will gather each week under the leadership of a facilitator who will lead you through a meaningful discussion of what you've individually discovered. If the group is large (twelve or more), you may need to divide into smaller groups for discussion time, with moderators being chosen to lead each one.

GETTING STARTED

The facilitator may offer a summation at the end of the group study, emphasizing specific applications from Revelation to meet the needs and characteristics of your particular group, depending on age, sex, and interests of the members.

Whether you choose to get started on your own or in a group, I pray that your time spent exploring Revelation will result in your own fresh vision of His glory!

TIPS FOR SUCCESS

I have taken countless trips in my lifetime—some long, some short, some far, some near. But every single trip involves a certain amount of preparation in order to be successful. And the preparation itself requires a measure of discipline. This Bible study is no exception.

Spiritual discipline is an essential part of an individual's ability to grow in his or her personal relationship with God through knowledge and understanding of His Word. It is my sincere prayer that whether you use these worksheets as a private daily devotion or in a weekly group Bible study, it will provide you with an easy, meaningful format for this growth to occur.

To stay on track and make this study most effective and meaningful to your life, I offer these specific suggestions:

- Set aside a regular place for your daily Bible study.
- Set aside a regular time for your daily Bible study.
- Pray before beginning each day's study, asking God to speak to you through His Word.
- Write out your answers for each step of the worksheets in sequence. Do not skip a step.
- Make the time to be still and listen, reflecting thoughtfully on your responses, especially in Step 5.

TAKE ONE STEP AT A TIME

Step 1. LOOK IN GOD'S WORD: Begin by reading the designated passage of Scripture. This is printed for you on each day's devotional section. When you have finished reading the passage, move to Step 2.

Step 2. LIST THE FACTS: Make a verse-by-verse list of the outstanding facts. Don't get caught up in the details; just pinpoint the most obvious facts. As you make your list, do not paraphrase but use actual words from the passage itself. Take a moment to read the completed example of a worksheet on the following pages. When you have read the passage in Step 1, look over the facts listed in Step 2 so that you understand these instructions more clearly.

Step 3. LEARN THE LESSONS: After looking at the passage and listing the facts, you are ready for Step 3. Go back to the list of facts in Step 2 and look for a lesson to learn from each fact. Ask yourself who is speaking, what the subject is, where the action is taking place, when it happened, and so on. Ask, What are the people in this passage doing that I should be doing? Is there a command I should obey? A promise I should claim? A warning I should heed? An example I should follow? Look again at the completed example on the following pages. Note that you may have more than one lesson for each verse.

Step 4. LISTEN TO HIS VOICE: The fourth step is the most meaningful, but you cannot do it until Steps 1, 2, and 3 have been completed. In order to complete Step 4, rephrase the lessons you found in Step 3 and put them in the form of questions you could ask yourself, your spouse, your child, your friend, your neighbor, or your coworker. As you write out the questions, listen for God to communicate to you personally through His Word.

There are some challenging passages in Revelation. Don't get hung up on what you don't understand. Look for the general principles and lessons that can be learned. Remember, don't rush. It may take you several moments of prayerful meditation to discover meaningful lessons and hear God speak to you. The object of these devotional studies is not to get through the study, but to develop your personal relationship with God in order to satisfy your spiritual hunger and increase your spiritual health.

Step 5. LIVE IT OUT: Read the assigned Scripture passage prayerfully, objectively, thoughtfully, and attentively as you listen for God to speak. He may not speak to you through every verse, but He will speak. When He does, record in Step 5 the verse number, what it is He seems to be saying to you, and your response to Him. You might like to date it as a means not only of keeping a spiritual journal, but also of holding yourself accountable to following through in obedience.

God bless you as you seek to learn this simple yet effective method of reading His Word, that you might hear His voice speaking to you personally through it. My prayer is that as you walk daily in this study through Revelation, you will learn to love the Bread of Life.

SAMPLE CHAPTER

1 LOOK IN GOD'S WORD:
Feel free to underline, circle, or otherwise mark text if it will aid your study.

2 LIST THE FACTS:
Make a verse-by-verse list of the most obvious facts. What does the passage say? Do not paraphrase.

Mark 9:2 After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John with him and led them up a high mountain, where they were all alone. There he was transfigured before them.

3 His clothes became dazzling white, whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them.

4 And there appeared before them Elijah and Moses, who were talking with Jesus.

5 Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah."

6 (He did not know what to say, they were so frightened.)

7 Then a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!"

8 Suddenly, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus.

9:2a Jesus took Peter, James, and John up a high mountain alone.

9:2b–3 He was transfigured before them, His clothes became dazzling white.

9:4 There appeared Elijah and Moses talking with Jesus.

9:5 Peter said to Jesus, "It is good to be here. Let's put up three shelters for You, Moses, and Elijah."

9:6 He didn't know what to say. They were frightened.

9:7 A cloud appeared, and a voice came saying, "This is My son—listen to Him."

9:8 Suddenly they no longer saw anyone except Jesus.

3 LEARN THE LESSONS:
What lessons can be learned from these facts? What do the facts mean? Is there an example to follow? Warning to heed? Promise to claim? Command to obey?

9:2a Jesus wants to be alone with us.

9:2b–3 There are times we have to be alone with Jesus in order to have a vision of His glory.

9:4 The vision of His glory will be the focus of believers in eternity

9:5 Some religious people want to treat Jesus as just another one of the prophets.

9:6 Sometimes our emotions prompt us to speak when we should be silent.

9:7 We are commanded by God to listen to what Jesus says.

9:8 When everything else fades away, including our visions and dreams of glory, our focus should still be on Jesus.

4 LISTEN TO HIS VOICE:
What does this passage mean to you? Rewrite the lessons from Step 3 in the form of a question to ask yourself or another.

9:2a When do I make time to be alone with Jesus?

9:2b–3 What fresh vision of Jesus am I lacking because I don't spend time alone with Him each day?

9:4 How drastically will I have to adjust my focus from what it is today to what it will be one day in eternity?

9:5 How do I see Jesus—as the unique Son of God, or as just another great prophet?

9:6 When have I spoken out when I should have been silent in worship?

9:7 Having glimpsed the vision of His glory, how obedient am I to God's command to listen to the voice of His beloved Son?

9:8 How consistent is my focus on Jesus?

5 LIVE IT OUT:
Pinpoint what God is saying to you from the passage. How will you respond? What will you do now to live it out? Today's date:

I will begin today to make time each day to be alone with Jesus, read my Bible, and listen to His voice.

CHAPTER 1

HOPE WHEN YOU ARE DEPRESSED

By the Smallness of Your Life

Does your life seem small to you? Do you feel abandoned, worthless, lost in the shuffle of life? What hope is there for your future?

If your hope is in this world, there is none. But to those who are depressed by the smallness of their lives, God gives hope for the future through the vision of His glory. This vision begins to unfold in the first chapter of the book of Revelation, as we reflect on what God says through prophecy.

CHAPTER 2

HOPE WHEN YOU ARE DEPRESSED by the Greatness of Your Problems

Amy Carmichael, the great missionary to India, wrote, “When we are facing the impossible, we can count upon the God of the impossible!”

The apostle John received a fresh vision of the God of the impossible at a time when not only the early church but he himself faced overwhelmingly great problems. When John received this vision that he recorded in the book of Revelation, the Emperor Domitian was on the throne in Rome. Secular history records Domitian as the cruelest of all the Roman emperors. He declared himself to be God, sentencing to death those who refused to worship him.

The early Christians did refuse to worship Domitian; therefore, they were sentenced to die by the thousands. Some were thrown to the lions in the great coliseum; some were burned at the stake. Others were wrapped in the skins of wild animals and fed to the dogs or dipped in tar and lit as torches for the emperor’s garden. Still others were crucified, including mothers with their babies draped around their necks.

The early Christians faced great problems! But rather than focus on each painful step of his walk of faith in the midst of such stress and suffering, the glorious vision enabled John to focus on the goal of Jesus Christ. By sharing the glorious vision, John encouraged those running the race of faith to maintain their focus on Jesus as they patiently endured.

CHAPTER 3

HOPE WHEN YOU ARE DELUDED

By Your Own Importance

In Revelation 2 and 3, God shines the intense light of His Word into the hearts of seven churches, revealing, in essence, cobwebs, dust, and soot—things that were not pleasing to Him, things the churches were not aware of under the ordinary lighting of their own standards and comparisons. The churches seemed in danger of losing the vision of His glory.

Four of the churches were revealed to be deluded by their own importance. The first church, in Ephesus, was deluded by something many would not consider a problem for those seeking to do God's work. But it became a problem for the Ephesian church—and it may be a problem for you. The Ephesian Christians were deluded by the importance of service.

The second church, Pergamum, was deluded by worldliness—thinking they had to be like the world around them to win the world to Jesus. The third church, Sardis, was deluded by phoniness—pretending to be more spiritual than they were. The fourth church was Laodicea, who was deluded by a pridefulness that rendered them useless to Jesus.

I know that you cannot tolerate wicked men, that you have tested those who claim to be apostles but are not, and have found them false. 3 You have persevered and have endured hardships for my name, and have not grown weary. 4 Yet I hold this against you: You have forsaken your first love. 5 Remember the height from which you have fallen! Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place. 6 But you have this in your favor: You hate the practices of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7 He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. CHAPTER 4

By Your Own Insignificance

A friend related to me her conversation with a nurse in the intensive care unit of a hospital. The nurse stated her support for abortion based on her professional experience in the ICU, not only in that hospital but previously in another city. Her reasoning was that the majority of premature babies who enter the ICU are in that condition because of poor prenatal care due to the mother's negligence. The nurse went on to point out that most mothers of the premature infants she cared for were either on drugs, had AIDS, were alcoholics, or had been abused in some way.

Since the birth and care of these babies put enormous pressure on the hospitals, which absorb most of the cost for the low-income mothers, and since the babies would be sent home to situations where they would not be well cared for, why should they be born? The nurse believed it would actually solve problems, save expense, and stop the cycle of poverty and abuse if these small, unloved, unwanted, insignificant babies were eliminated.

What do you feel is so insignificant you want to “do without” it—to discard it? A relationship? An unborn baby? A marriage? An opportunity for service? Your future? Your own life?

The vision of His glory gives hope to those who are deluded by their own insignificance because it reveals, in Jesus, there is no such thing as an insignificant person or an insignificant place or an insignificant position! The church at Smyrna seemed to suffer with fearfulness, Thyatira with sinfulness, and Philadelphia with timidity.

CHAPTER 5

HOPE WHEN YOU ARE DISCOURAGED

by the Majority of the Ungodly

My father was once interviewed on television by Diane Sawyer. She asked if, after having preached for fifty years to over 120 million people face-to-face on every continent of the globe, after having presented the gospel through television, radio, and the printed word, he was pleased with his “success.” My father’s answer startled her because he replied, “I don’t think of myself as successful at all. I feel like a failure.” Pressing him to explain himself, she inquired, “Did you think you could change the world?” He responded softly, “I thought maybe, after a lifetime of preaching . . . But the world is worse today than when I began my ministry.”

Do you have the same deep sense of failure? In spite of your obedience, your dependence, and your service to God, do things seem to be worse, leaving you overwhelmed and hopelessly discouraged by the majority of the ungodly?

Lift up your head! Open your eyes to the vision of His glory—a glorious vision of hope God has given in His revelation of who Jesus is! He is the Lord!

(Some of these verses are challenging. Do the best you can with the lessons and applications.)

CHAPTER 6

HOPE WHEN YOU ARE DISCOURAGED

By the Minority of the Godly

Is it worth it to tell the truth, when lying would get you a promotion or a salary increase?

Is it worth it to get involved with the homeless, the hopeless, the helpless in Jesus' name and for His sake, and risk hostility and rejection?

Is it worth it to deny yourself, take up your cross daily, and follow Christ, when no one else in your church seems to take his or her faith that seriously?

Is it worth it to live your life in obedience to God's Word, surrendered to God's will, walking in God's way, when the entire world seems to be going in the opposite direction?

Is it worth it to live a godly life and become a member of the minority? Is it worth it?

My personal answer to all of the above is a resounding, unhesitating "yes! YES! YES! It's worth it!" Living a godly Christian life is worth whatever it costs—a thousand times over! Why? Because He is worth it!

The vision of His glory in Revelation 5 describes the "worth-it-ness," or the worthiness, of Jesus Christ and gives thrilling hope to those who are discouraged by the minority of the godly. Our hope is in who Jesus is!

CHAPTER 7

HOPE WHEN YOU ARE DISTRESSED

by Evil Actions

Sometimes the evil actions of others become very personal, and we cannot avoid them because they are committed against us or against our loved ones. In such instances, the outrage can become a root of deep-seated anger, hatred, frustration, and bitterness that festers until our lives are filled with distress.

Have you been stripped of everything? Stripped materially, emotionally, financially, socially, intellectually, physically? Stripped of your marriage, your health, your family, your home, your friends, your reputation, your youth? Are your days filled with distress because of the evil actions of others? Does your future look bleak and barren because your present is so bitter?

If you have been stripped of anything—or everything—look up! One day God will straighten the crooked, right the wrong, humble the proud, judge the wicked, and vindicate the righteous! Why? Because God is just!

HOPE WHEN YOU ARE DISTRESSED

by Evil Alliances

What evil alliance is causing you distress? Is it an alliance between your spouse and your mother-in-law? Or an alliance between your spouse and another companion? Or is it a distressing alliance between your boss and the chairman of the board of directors? Or an alliance between your pastor and a business consultant? Or an alliance between your child and someone else?

No matter how powerful the alliance confronting you now seems, the Bible reveals that an evil alliance is yet to come that will cause all others to seem insignificant in comparison. It will ultimately dominate the world, giving Satan unbridled freedom to work out his blasphemous plan of rebellion and destruction.

But the vision of His glory gives us hope when we are distressed by evil alliances, regardless of the size or scope, because it reveals Jesus Christ asserting His power, avenging His people, and in the end, appearing in person to break up all evil alliances and establish His kingdom on earth!

CHAPTER 9

HOPE WHEN YOU ARE DEFEATED

by Life

The following letter was sent to a Christian leader in Croatia by a former Muslim who came to Christ and began pastoring a small church in then war-torn Sarajevo. A missionary translated it into English, and I have left it, punctuation and all, exactly as it was written. It reveals one who would be totally defeated by life, except for his hope in Christ.

“Dear Respected Brother,

I would like to inform you that yesterday on Sunday we held services in our dear church. For the first service there were eight of us, all new Christians. . . . I am worried how we can survive over this third cold winter. We are naked and barefoot! Our wardrobes are empty, there is no electricity or water. May God help us!

My dear Brother, to me it is the greatest joy that our faith in Jesus can grow and that people get saved and turn to the Lord. These are great riches. Everything else is unimportant and passing away. My life is Christ. . . .”

As our hearts are moved in grief and compassion by the eloquence of this Christian brother describing the utter hopelessness of his daily life, we also rejoice! Praise God! There is real hope for those defeated by life! One day, the glory of Christ will no longer be just a vision! One day, this dear pastor—and you and I—will see and experience the glory of Christ!

REVELATION 20:1-3

1 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key to the Abyss and holding in his hand a great chain. 2 He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the devil, or Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. 3 He threw him into the Abyss, and locked and sealed it over him, to keep him from deceiving the nations anymore until the thousand years were ended. After that, he must be set free for a short time.

REVELATION 20:4–6

4 I saw thrones on which were seated those who had been given authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony for Jesus and because of the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or his image and had not received his mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 (The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended.) This is the first resurrection. 6 Blessed and holy are those who have part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him for a thousand years.

REVELATION 20:7–10

7 When the thousand years are over, Satan will be released from his prison 8 and will go out to deceive the nations in the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog—to gather them for battle. In number they are like the sand on the seashore. 9 They marched across the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of God's people, the city he loves. But fire came down from heaven and devoured them. 10 And the devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the lake of burning sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet had been thrown. They will be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. Earth and sky fled from his presence, and there was no place for them. 12 And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what they had done as recorded in the books. 13 The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and each person was judged according to what he had done.

HOPE WHEN YOU ARE DEFEATED

by Death

Has your entire life been a series of struggles?
Have you been more sick than well?
More defeated than successful?
More tired than rested?
More alone than accompanied?
More empty than satisfied?
More hungry than filled?
More sad than happy?

Do you feel defeated because after a lifetime of struggle, all you have to look forward to is death and a cold grave? Look up! The Lord Jesus Christ is preparing a heavenly home that “no eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived . . . for those who love him.”

The vision of His glory gives hope to you and me and all those who are ultimately defeated by death as we glimpse the heavenly home our Bridegroom is preparing for those who love Him!

They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 4 He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.”

To him who is thirsty I will give to drink without cost from the spring of the water of life. 7 He who overcomes will inherit all this, and I will be his God and he will be my son. 8 But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars—their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulfur. 9 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.” 10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God. 11 It shone with the glory of God, and its brilliance was like that of a very precious jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. 12 It had a great, high wall with twelve gates, and with twelve angels at the gates. On the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel. 13 There were three gates on the east, three on the north, three on the south and three on the west. 14 The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

HOPE THAT IGNITES OUR HEARTS

The church in Liberia, Africa, was cut off from the rest of the world during that country's bloody civil war. The pastor of a church in the capital city of Monrovia, writing his Christmas letter by candlelight to the leaders of his denomination, expressed the hope of his heart: "My candle is soon to go out, but the sun is rising. And who needs a candle when you have the Son?"

What has caused you to feel that the candle of hope in your life is soon to go out? Bloody civil war in your home? Discord in your marriage? Turmoil in your business? Is the source of your hopelessness nothing you can really pinpoint, just a general feeling of depression, of disillusionment, or discouragement, of distress, and of defeat? After reading Revelation, are you convinced Jesus Christ will reign in the world at some future time, but you don't know what difference that makes in your life today?

The vision of His glory concludes with a challenge to us to experience the difference hope does make today. We are challenged not to place our hope in the things of this world but to keep our focus on the rising Son in every aspect of our lives.
